MAY BE INVOLVED

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Alexandria, Va., August 10.—The question of the ownership of the land directly south of the new highway bridge may be involved in the case of George D. Horning, a Washington loan broker, who will be given a preliminary hearing at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon before United States Commissioner R. P. W. Garnett on a warrant charging him with placing dirt on a government reservation. The point where he is alleged to have thrown the dirt is just at the south end of the bridge, where his loan shop, a wooden affain is located.

Following the enactment of stringent laws in the District, several of the loan brokers in Washington came over on the Virginia side, among them being Mr. Horning.

The case, it is stated, was instituted at the instance of the War Department, and a warrant was served on Mr. Horning by Deputy United States Marshal William Schoeni. When the case is called the accused will be represented by Commonwealth's Attorney Captain Crandal Mackey, of Alexandria County.
